Since I posted a sermon earlier on worry, I decided to post this sermon by Steve Zeisler also on the topic of worry and how we, as Christians, should remain faithful instead of worry. May God bless, Carl my website

Landlord say your rent is late; he may have to litigate; don't worry, be happy! When you worry, your face will frown; that will bring EVERYBODY down; don't worry, be happy! I thought that crazy song was rather cute. Do you have the complete lyrics for it please?

Since I posted a sermon earlier on worry, I decided to post this sermon by Steve Zeisler also on the topic of worry and how we, as Christians, should remain faithful instead of worry. Not to detract, but you have brought something to mind. A few years back (during my marriage), a black singer made a song VERY popular. It went, Don't worry, be happy! Landlord say your rent is late; he may have to litigate; don't worry, be happy! When you worry, your face will frown; that will bring EVERYBODY down; don't worry, be happy! My wife (at the time), a pastor's daughter, asked me what I thought of the song (from a theological / doctrinal POV). I was the OTHER pastor in the family. I said, I wasn't sure ALL The lyrics were Right on , but in general, Don't worry, be happy! is certainly scriptural. It goes to the Beatitudes. Be well, be blessed! The singer's name is Bobby McFerrin who does amazing things with only his voice. Very talented individual. May God bless, Carl my website

If you go to Google and type in Don't Worry Be Happy and lyrics, there are many sources where you can get lyrics. There's also some interesting info concerning the song on Wikipedia (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Don't_Worry,_Be_Happy) for whatever it's worth. May God bless, Carl my website
