This may be the last 'beer bits' for a week for me, although I hope that Nick Ricketts of Germany/Denmark will keep 'em coming. I'm headed to England for work and returning on Friday next week. If time allows, may cruise in from an internet cafe or pub, but probably just have time to process emails. Anyone for a pint at 'The Porter House' (Covent garden) this Monday afternoon? Hope to catch the Oxford beer fest with famous rfdB-Oxonian Tom Fryer...but it depends on what time my function in Birmingham finishes as well as on British Rail.  Hops Warehouse Fire Tue Sep 19 - In the early morning hours of Saturday, September 16, a fire broke out at a hop storage warehouse in Yakima. The warehouse, which was leased by John I. Haas, Inc. and all its contents, was completely lost. In excess of 2.5 million lbs. of hops or an estimated equivalent of 160 tons of alpha was destroyed. Most of the volume was comprised of Nugget, Galena, Chelan and Cluster varieties. Although the cause of the fire is still being investigated, it is likely that a flame or heat source started the fire.
